

1 fact, these are not my words. One of the co-sponsors drew
2 the amendment.

3 What I am trying to do here is to preserve a
4 concept which I think is a valuable one in the law of this
5 State. No words have occurred to me, but perhaps some of the 6 70-odd lawyers in the hall who are listening to what I am
7 saying can offer words which would meet this point.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Very well.

9 Amendment No. 15, having been withdrawn, is now
10 resubmitted by Delegate Case and seconded by Delegates
11 Lord and Carson.

12 For what purpose does Delegate Weidemeyer rise?

13 DELEGATE WEIDEMEYER: Mr. President, I rose be-
14 fore when we were in the discussion of the committees
15 meeting, and I, with Delegate Childs, helped to draft this
16 section. We had before us Article V of the present Declara-
17 tion of Rights, and we had Article XXI.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: I think I should accord the pri-
19 vilege to Delegate Case to speak first.

20 DELEGATE CASE: Mr. Chairman and ladies and 21 gentlemen of the committee:
